1. In December 1954, Kari Sillanpaa of Kerava/Taistalukoulu, Finland, founded the Finnish Section of the European Social Movement. This movement, known as the Finnish Social League (Suomen Sosialinen Liike) was formed from members of the Finnish National Youth group. The first meeting of the Finnish Social League was held in April 1955.
2. The Finnish National Youth group is in contact with the Spanish Falange youth organization. At present, plans are being made for an exchange of youth leaders between Finland and Spain.
3. Sillanpaa is translating into Finnish former Colonel Hans-Ulrich Rudel's book Es Galt Im Das Reich (The German Reich is at Stake). He plans to have this book published in Finland.
